CONCURRENT SESSIONS

SEXUAL & CHILD PORNOGRAPHY OFFENSES (SAWYER KEY ROOM)

This panel will discuss federal sex crimes, with a focus on child pornography offenses and section 2G2.2 of the federal sentencing guidelines. Section 2G2.2 has been the focus on intense criticism during the past 15 years and has one of the lowest within-range rates of any sentencing guideline. The panel will address recurring legal issues concerning that guideline and common bases for variances from the guideline. The panel also will discuss how defense attorneys can work productively with probation officers in the presentence interview while protecting their clients' rights.

- Odessa Baker
*United States Probation Officer
Middle District of North Carolina*
- Kathleen Gleason, Esq.
*Assistant Federal Defender

THE BRADY PUNCH:
HARNESSING BRADY AT SENTENCING
(SAWYER KEY ROOM)

We all fight for Brady material at the beginning of the case and at trial, but what about sentencing? People often forget that Brady was actually a sentencing case. Even with a plea agreement, or a stipulated sentencing guideline, Brady can open all sorts of discovery and litigation avenues in the sentencing context to support the development of guideline challenges and to assist in fleshing out mitigation arguments. Join this session to discuss how Brady can be a positive force at your sentencing hearings.
