Tampa Bay Chapter Celebrates the Life and Legacy of Hon. Wm. Terrell Hodges

On Wednesday, February 15, 2023, the Tampa Bay Chapter welcomed esteemed guests to the Courthouse Ballroom at Le Meridien to celebrate the life and legacy of U.S. District Judge Wm. Terrell Hodges. The event featured remarks by Chief Judge Timothy J. Corrigan, U.S. District Judge Steven D. Merryday, Florida Bar President Gary Lesser, Stephanie M. Marchman, Marjorie Allen, U.S. Magistrate Judge Leslie Hoffman Price, and Daniel Hodges, a welcome by Immediate Past Chapter President, Jordan Maglich, and an invocation by Father C. Timothy Corcoran, III. The event was well attended by current and former judges of the Middle District of Florida and members of the bar, along with many of Judge Hodges' former law clerks. We would like to thank the North Central Florida Chapter of the Federal Bar Association, Jacksonville Chapter of the Federal Bar Association, and the Middle District of Florida Bench Bar Fund for their contributions to this event. The Chapter extends its sincere thanks and appreciation to the Hodges' family and courthouse staff for their support of this event.

Judges Jung and Sneed Host Cooley FBA Student Division

The Tampa Bay Chapter thanks U.S. District Judge William Jung and U.S. Magistrate Julie Sneed for their support of the Cooley Law FBA Student Division. On February 14, 2023, Judges Jung and Sneed hosted Cooley Law FBA Student Division members for a luncheon and motion calendar. The students were greatly appreciative of the opportunity.

TBCFBA Attends Stetson's "Career to Campus" Event

Greg Pierson, Aimee Canty, and Ali Preston represented the Tampa Bay Chapter at Stetson's Sponsor Reception and Voluntary Bar Association/Inns of Court Connection, one of Stetson's "Career to Campus" events, on Wednesday, February 1, 2023. The Chapter garnered significant interest from students keen to take advantage of the FBA's free membership for law students (and for the first year of practice thereafter). Thank you to Greg, Aimee, and Ali for your hard work.
